Top Health Stories Today

New NHS chief Simon Stevens makes incoming speech

Air pollution: High levels 'to spread across England'

Chinese medicine could become available on the NHS

Other

New NHS chief Simon Stevens makes incoming speech

New NHS chief angers unions with praise for private sector innovation The Guardian

Health service facing biggest challenge in its history, new NHS chief says The Guardian

Stevens offers hope for small hospitals in first speech for NHS England HSJ

New NHS chief: Stakes have never been higher for service, warns incoming Simon Stevens The Independent

NHS must do more to help people stay healthy, says new boss The Telegraph

Air pollution: High levels 'to spread across England'

Air pollution: High levels 'to spread across England' BBC

England braced for 'very high' levels of air pollution this week as dust lands from Sahara The Independent

Chinese medicine could become available on the NHS

Hunt calls for Chinese medicine on the NHS Daily Mail

Chinese medicine could become available on the NHS The Telegraph
Other

BBC

Dieting monkeys offer hope for long life
E-cigarettes face curb in public places in Wales
Ebola outbreak in Guinea ‘limited geographically’ - WHO Obama touts high healthcare enrolment after deadline
Antrim baby death: Parents fail to get apology
Stem cell scientist 'guilty of misconduct'
New legislation introduces 'DIY' personal care option
Animal lab cuts 'pose threat to human health'
Fears over dementia diagnosis push

BMJ

The health benefits of vegetables and fruit rise with consumption, finds study
Failing to act on climate change will “cause great suffering,” doctors warn
BMA calls for repeal of “intensely damaging” health act
GMC should have power to appeal decisions on fitness to practise, MPs say
Studies must have policies on feeding back health related findings to participants, says new guidance

The Daily Mail

Could a phone app save millions from blindness? 'Pocket optician' brings eye tests to poor and remote villages
Pay rises for NHS Managers
Those on simple meat and veg diet lost twice as much fat in six months
Could stress make hay fever worse? Meditation and breathing exercises could be key to relieving allergy flare-ups
Poor quality slumber causes loss of memory and concentration
The lab-grown muscle that heals itself: Breakthrough technique could one day replace damaged tissue in humans
The Financial Times

Insurers accused of ‘bribing’ patients

Bristol-Myers Squibb: side effects

Big pharma’s dual approach to Africa

China set to be second-biggest drugs market by 2016

The Guardian

Migrants face ‘living hell’ in Greek detention

The Independent

With one fast food restaurant for every 1,100 people, Birmingham takes a stand against the takeaway

NHS ‘bad eggs’ could be struck off under new regulation plans drawn up by the Law Commission in response to Mid-Staffs scandal

Nurses ‘better’ at taking blood pressure than doctors

Pressure ulcer tool ‘not accurate’ for critical care, say nurses

Pulse

Revalidation process is unable to adequately assess GPs, MPs find

GPs asked for additional evidence in a third of benefit claims, show Government figures

Patients to be allowed to ‘enhance and update’ GP records

The Telegraph

Judy Murray: give children PE homework to boost fitness